

Retired and Adjustments

SPRING 2025

JORDAN
ESSENTIALS

DEAR JORDIES,

As we prepare for a fresh new season, we wanted to share an important update. Our Coconut Lime fragrance will soon be retiring to make way for a fun new fragrance. Now is the perfect time to stock up on your favorites while they're still available! (This does not include the fan-favorite Leave-In Conditioner.)

We're also making minor price adjustments to two items to ensure we continue delivering the top-quality products you love and retiring the 2 oz size of the Hand & Body Lotions. Watch for travel sizes in Weekly Wows and Joyful Jordan Boxes!

Thank you for being part of the Jordan Essentials family—exciting things are on the horizon!
